

Welcome to Olbia

1

One of the first things to do in Olbia is certainly visit the historical city center, a legacy of the Roman and Medieval Olbia.

You will get an immediate idea of how ancient the city is, the streets respect for 2000 years the urban Roman layout .

At the highest point of the acropolis of the ancient city, you can admire the Church of St. Paul, built in the thirteenth century.

Also to see the Minor Basilica of San Simplicio, the Archaeological Museum, the Roman aqueduct, the Simpliciana library, the Punic walls and the Town Hall.

If, between one visit and the other, you need to enjoy a refreshing break, you can visit the Fausto Noce Park, green lung of the city.

2

If you love good food, wine and food itineraries will make your leisure at any time of year. Olbia and the neighboring areas have a rich culinary tradition based on ancient recipes handed down from generation to generation.

Gastronomy resumes the Sardinian pastoral tradition, rich of sheep meat and cheeses which are flanked by the fish dishes of the ancient cuisine of fishermen.

3

Nelle splendide acque di Golfo Aranci e dell'Area Marina Protetta di Tavolara è possibile osservare i delfini costieri che si trovano in quest'area per alimentarsi e allevare i loro piccoli. Negli ultimi inverni, inoltre, sono diventati sempre più frequenti, nelle acque costiere, i passaggi delle balenottere che frequentano quest'area per alimentarsi. Un'attività ricca di emozioni e adatta a tutti gli amanti del Dolphin & Whale watching.

Welcome to Olbia, a city rich in history and culture. A magical place, now considered one of the main tourist destinations of Sardinia that, throughout the year, offers to its visitors activities to suit everyone. The city is a few kilometers from the renowned tourist centers, internationally, as Porto Cervo, Porto Rotondo and San Pantaleo. Afterwards, any suggestions on what to do in your free time.
